Hello there!

At Wildera Travel, we know that planning a vacation can sometimes feel overwhelming, and figuring out what's included in a travel advisor's services isn't always clear. That's exactly why we created this guide, to pull back the curtain on how we work, what we deliver, and the different ways we can serve you. Think of it as your roadmap to understanding the Wildera experience: from the first hello to the moment you're boarding your flight (and even after you've unpacked your bags).

This guide was put together by our Wildera team, a small but mighty team of travel advisors who love helping families, couples, and adventurers see the world without stress. We wanted to share our process and pricing in a transparent way, so you know what to expect and what you'll receive. It's not just about booking trips; it's about creating seamless, memorable journeys. Each package reflects the time, care, and expertise we pour into designing something truly special for you.

Why Work with Us

Wildera Travel was born out of a shared passion for exploration and a desire to make travel simpler, richer, and more personal. As seasoned travel advisors — and frequent travelers ourselves — we’ve seen firsthand how overwhelming it can be to sift through endless options online, trying to piece together the perfect vacation. We knew there had to be a better way. That’s why we created Wildera: a boutique travel agency focused on transforming the planning process into something stress-free, transparent, and, dare we say, fun.

Our team brings years of experience designing honeymoons, family vacations, cruises, and multi-destination adventures. We’ve walked through resort lobbies with toddlers in tow, sailed Alaska’s glaciers, sipped cocktails on Caribbean beaches, and tested countless excursions so we can give honest, firsthand recommendations. More than that, we’ve built relationships with trusted partners around the globe who help us deliver those “wow” moments — from a surprise room upgrade to a private tour you’ll never forget.

At Wildera Travel, you are not just a confirmation number. Our business is personal. Every trip we design is carefully curated around your style, your pace, and your priorities. We specialize in creating unforgettable, stress-free vacations that are uniquely yours. Because when you look back on your time away, we want you to remember not the logistics or the planning, but the feeling of adventure, connection, and joy.
